

DTE Foundation supports domestic violence shelters

Hear Kelly's story >

DTE empowers CMU students with new solar workstation

From now on, Central Michigan University students don't need to head into the nearest building when their phone or laptop needs a charge; they can just head over to the new solar workstation.

Check it out >

Every person counts

Responding to the 2020 Census will affect everything in your community, from road funding to how schools are supported. Shape your future, complete the census.

Get informed >

A family tree

For 102 years there has been a Filgo at DTE Energy. Debra Filgo is the last of their name at the company. Debra Filgo is the last of the family name at the company and plans to retire in February.

Read their story >

A helping hand back home

Since its founding, Loving Arms For Liberia, with the donations from DTE Energy and Detroiters, has helped provide supplies and create opportunities for Liberians with much needed donations. Read how DTE employee Anthony got involved.

Get the details >

Hallelujah for Heat turns 10!

This year, DTE held the 10th Annual Hallelujah for Heat Gospel Concert as a night of celebration and appreciation for DTE customers and community partners.

Celebrate with us >

